Riflecoach in Danish Shooting Union

Are you a rifle coach that has a passion to help talents unlock their potential and want to co-create our future training environment at our new National Elitesports Center in Aarhus?

Do you have a good knowledge of technical, physical, and mental training. Do you have experience as an athlete on high international level and do you want to use that knowledge to coach talented athletes on their way to world class level?

Danish Shooting Union is looking for a rifle coach to our new National Elite Center in Aarhus. As a coach on the National Elite Center, you will be responsible for strengthening the training environment both for the national team and the development team.

Your qualifications

- You have experience as a coach or athlete on a high national or international level.
- You have experience of working with athletes and their development.
- You have a passion for developing both yourself, the environment, and the athletes.
- You have a basic level of education in rifle technic, physical training, and mental training complemented by higher national- or international coaching education (or motivation to undergo such education).
- You have good cooperation skills.
- You are clear in your communication.

The work is on 50-75% with a goal to become a full time and it involves:

- In cooperation with Danish Shooting Federation co-create an inspiring training environment in the National Elite Center in Aarhus that motivates for higher performance and well being.
- Being responsible coach for our development athletes.
- Conduct daily training sessions for our best athletes when their personal coach is abroad (the personal coach for the best athlete will plan the training and you conduct it).
- Working with the development athlete's individual development plan and together with the athlete keeping the plan updated.
- Cooperate with our talentcenter coaches to improve the training quality for the upcoming world class athletes (development group and junior team).
- Close cooperation with the sports leader group around operation- and development tasks.
- Being the responsible coach for development athletes during international competitions and from time to time participate at international competitions as assistant coach and/or team leader for the National Team.
- Working in a professionally driven elite section but at the same time understanding the democratic background of Danish Shooting Union.

We offer:

- An exciting chance to work with athletes from in the development team and also from time to time with the best athletes in the national team.
- A unique possibility to co-create and develop the training environment and to improve Danish shooting sport.
